

Standards for Perioperative Nursing in Australia

14th Edition

Contents

Introduction	1	Risk management	100	Environmental management	215
Acknowledgements	3	Safe patient and manual handling	105	Instrument tracking	220
Evidence grading	5	Surgical plume	109	Management of instrument loan sets and re-usable medical devices	222
Nursing roles	7	Surgical safety	113	Planning and design of the perioperative environment	231
Advanced practice nursing and nurse practitioner roles	8	Professional practice	115	Purchasing and safety considerations for new equipment and instrumentation	242
Anaesthetic nurse	11	Accountability for practice	116	Environmentally sustainable perioperative practices	245
Circulating nurse	24	Documentation	120	Use of high-level disinfectants	257
Enrolled nurse	28	Nursing research	123	Use of the pneumatic tourniquet	261
Instrument nurse	31	Postgraduate nursing	126	Management and staffing	267
Perioperative Nurse Surgeon's Assistant	35	Professional development	128	Ancillary workers	268
Perioperative nurses as surgical assistants	41	Undergraduate nursing students	132	Budget preparation and monitoring	269
Post Anaesthesia Care Unit nurse	43	Asepsis and clinical care	135	Bullying and harassment	274
Preoperative patient assessment and education nurse	48	Asepsis	136	Cultural diversity	279
Staff and patient safety	51	Disposal of surgically removed human tissue and explanted items	143	Emotional support for personnel	282
Fatigue in the perioperative environment	52	Infection prevention	145	Management of the perioperative environment	284
Fire safety	58	Perioperative attire	165	Management of the Post Anaesthesia Care Unit	344
Laser safety	64	Reprocessing of re-usable items: Cleaning, packaging, sterilisation and storage of sterile supplies	177	Performance review	297
Management of accountable items used during surgery and procedures	69	Single use items	182	Perioperative nursing management of posthumous organ procurement	300
Management of latex sensitivity	77	Skin preparation of the patient	184	Staffing requirements	311
Management of sharps in the perioperative environment	81	Specimen identification, collection and handling	188	Visitors to the perioperative environment	325
Medication safety	87	Surgical hand antisepsis, gowning and gloving	193	Glossary	333
Positioning the patient for surgery	95	Equipment and environment	207
Quality management	98	Anaesthetic gas pollution	208
		Electrosurgical equipment	210		